

SALVI announces . . .

Biduum Latinum 2013

Claymont Mansion
Charles Town, West Virginia
February 22 – 24, 2013

SALVI (Septentrionale Americanum Latinitatis Vivae Institutum, or North American Institute for Living Latin Studies) proudly presents the second annual Claymont Biduum Latinum—a full-immersion Latin weekend workshop. The Biduum Latinum will be a restorative weekend in which we experience a sort of “mini-Rusticatio.”

Still here in the Biduum Latinum from the Rusticatio:

- Nancy Llewellyn’s amazing teaching and energy
- supportive, intimidation-free environment
- communicating entirely in Latin
- high-energy conversation exercises
- learning and relaxing in Latin
- experiencing, as a student, active teaching methods
- games for a variety of learning styles
- techniques that will streamline your teaching
- readings from Latin literature presented in Latin
- pedagogical discussions
- e x c e l l e n t food (included in the price)
- a feeling of camaraderie in the beautiful setting that is Claymont Mansion

The event seeks to target two distinct groups of people. It will offer a mid-year “fix” of immersion Latin at Claymont for Rusticatio alumni. And, it will give not-yet-alumni (☺) a weekend – not a full week – of immersion Latin. You can get a taste during the Biduum, and then come back for more in the summer at the Rusticatio!

Cost: $295 per person, all-inclusive, covering tuition, room, full board, and instructional materials. Transportation to and from Claymont is not included.

Program Dates: February 22 – 24, 2013. (Arrival: Friday, February 22, between 3 and 6 p.m.; Departure: Sunday, February 24 between noon and 3 p.m.)

Eligibility: You are eligible to attend this workshop if you have already learned Latin on paper and are interested in developing active command of the spoken language. Please note that Biduum is not an introductory Latin course and thus it is not for people who have no knowledge of the language. Typically, participants have completed, at a minimum, the equivalent of two years of traditional college Latin or four years of a high school Latin program. It is not necessary to have previous experience speaking Latin.

Location: We will reside and conduct our workshop sessions in the historic mansion house on the Claymont Estate. Built in the 1830s by a nephew of George Washington, the Claymont Mansion remained in the Washington family until the Civil War.

Nancy E. Llewellyn will join us as our head instructor. She is Associate Professor of Latin at Wyoming Catholic College. She holds a Ph.D. from UCLA, an M.A. from the in Rome (where she also studied at the Gregorian University with Reginald Foster), and a B.A. from Bryn Mawr College. Since 1998, she has led numerous workshops on spoken Latin for students and teachers in California, Michigan, New Jersey, Oklahoma, and Virginia.

(For more information, please read the FAQ on our website at www.latin.org, or send an email to info@latin.org)

The application (2 pages) follows on the next page

BIDUUM LATINUM: 2013 Application

Before completing this application, consult the Biduum Latinum 2013 announcement (above) or the SALVI website for workshop description and eligibility requirements. SALVI acknowledges all applications by email upon receipt. The tuition for Biduum 2013 is $295. The postmark deadline is January 31, 2013.

1. Name (nomen)

2. Contact information (de temet ipsa/o singula)

Address (inscriptio cursualis)

Telephone number (numerus telephonicus)

Email (inscriptio electronica)

3. Institutional affiliation (if any) (schola sive studiorum universitas)

4. What is your current occupation (teacher, student, other professional)?

5. How many years of formal classroom study of Latin have you completed? (Quot annos linguae Latinae sub magistro studuisti?)

6. If you are returning to Latin after a hiatus, how many years has it been since you last were in a Latin classroom, either as a student or a teacher? (Si studia Latina olim deposita iam es repetiturus, abhinc quot annos, magister vel discipulus, eadem deposuisti?)

7. If you have ever attended a full-immersion Latin workshop before (including Rusticatio), please tell us which one and what year.

8. Are you...? (circle one) (Esne tu ...?) Femina Vir

9. Do you snore? (circle one) (Solesne stertere?) Sic Non

10. Do you smoke? (circle one) (Solesne fumum haurire) Sic Non

11. Do you have special dietary needs/restrictions? Please describe briefly. (You will be asked to complete a more detailed questionnaire upon admission.) (Si ciborum regimen tibi servandum est, id paucis iam benigne adumbra fusius de re alias disserturus.)

12. Do you have any medical conditions we should know about which might affect your comfort/safety during the workshop? Please describe briefly. (You will be asked to complete a more detailed questionnaire upon admission.) (Si ulla valetudine afficeris de qua securitatis causa nos certiores fieri oporteat, eam quaeso paucis iam adumbra fusius de re alias disserturus.)

13. Emergency Contact (Quis necessitate gravi convocandus)

End of Biduum Latinum 2012 Application. Please print and complete this application and mail it along with your $295 payment to

SALVI
1252 11th Street #107
Santa Monica, CA 90401

Postmark deadline for application: January 31, 2012

Contact person: Dawn Mitchell
dawn.mitchell90@gmail.com