

Latin Convivium

January 9th Saturday 1-4

Held at Sacred Heart Academy 3860 Main St. Buffalo, NY 14226

Come enjoy a Classics-filled day, without the stress of tests!

- Listen to a lecture from Thomas Banchich, Ph.D., Chair the Classics Department, Canisius College
- Create a short skit for our Odyssey Skit Contest (see separate sheet for details)
- Bring your Classics-inspired artwork for our art contest
- Make Latin related products with your school's Classics Club to sell at our open market (think t-shirts, pins, hats, and mugs)
- Dance your heart out at our ballare
- Purchase pizza, drinks, and snacks to help support the JCL
- Meet others who love Latin and get new ideas for your Classics Clubs
- Hear about the amazing 2015 National Convention and this year's Convention at Indiana University
- Admission is free and there are ribbons for all categories

Make sure to wear your Latin Garb and have an amazing time!

Skit Contest Rules and Regulations

- The skit has to be under 3 minutes long and must be a modern or traditional interpretation of Homer's Odyssey.
- Skits do not have to be preformed by people of the same year level, but they do have to be done by school.
- No school can have more than 3 skits, and actors can only be in one skit.
- One person skits are allowed.
- Having props, costumes and musical numbers will award you extra points.
- Originality will also award you extra points.
- Winners will be awarded with laurel crowns, ribbons, and of course, bragging rights.
- Your skits will be judged by your state council officers.

Have fun creating your skits- we can't wait to see them!
